

TECHNOLOGY
LICENSING

ENGINEERING SERVICES

PLANT
CONSTRUCTION

The EPC Group is an internationally active engineering and plant construction company as well as provider of innovative technologies. The company's activities are focused on the planning and implementation of infrastructure projects and industrial facilities in the areas of chemicals and pharmaceuticals, polymers and fibers, technical gases, biotechnology as well as renewable energy. With over 140 years of engineering tradition the family business is now represented by over 300 highly motivated professionals at eight locations in Germany and one office in Russia.

We are currently looking for a

PROJECT ENGINEER for Technical Building Equipment Specialized in Ventilation Technology

to join our team in Rudolstadt:

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Performances according to HOAI (phase 1-9), energy concepts
- Development of customer-specific solutions
- Project Management in compliance with costs, deadlines and quality
- Specialized supervision of construction
- Assistance in awarding construction and delivery services
- Coordination of planning with other areas
- Authority Engineering

YOUR QUALIFICATIONS

- University degree or further training (e.g. in the field of TBE with specialisation in Supply Engineering, etc.)
- Working experience in planning of ventilation systems
- Knowledge in areas such as public buildings, R&D, health care, clean room and industrial facilities, industrial construction or administrative buildings
- Strong communication skills and a high degree of customer focus
- Ability to work in a team, flexibility and interested in varied tasks
- Ability to work independently, result-oriented and a profound sense of responsibility
- Knowledge of relevant industry standards and regulations
- Good knowledge of MS Office and Auto-CAD